Durham Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Durham, N. C., October 28.—Besides the many lovely meetings of the literary clubs there were many other charming affairs during the week. Mrs. B. N. Duke was the hostess of the Up-to-Date Club. After the literary program, the feature of which was the reading of the "Ancient Drama of the Orientals," which was prepared by Mrs. Julia Sasser and read by Mrs. J. C. Murray. In the absence of Mrs. Sasser, a beautiful luncheon was served in the dining-room.

The Tourists were delightfully entertained by Mrs. J. H. Jones. The home was bright and attractive with quantities of goldenrod in great brass jardiniere and tall vases. The members of the club are devoting the winter to the study of Egypt for which a very interesting and instructive program has been arranged. Mrs. John Sprunt Hill, who has spent some time touring that country, gave an interesting talk on the "Pyramids and the Sphinx." The program of the afternoon on "The Memphis Period" was prepared by Mrs. W. A. Erwin and read by Mrs. J. F. Hill. Mrs. J. A. Robinson read an article on "A Winter Night at the Pyramids." A delicious luncheon was served at the close of the meeting.

The Halcyon Club met with Mrs. E. Cobb. Mrs. W. T. Bost read a paper on "The Geography of North Carolina as Related to Its History and Resources," which was followed by a paper on "The Settlement of the Albemarle Section," read by Mrs. W. K. Yd. There was an informal discussion on "Historic Landmarks of the Albemarle Section," led by Mrs. N. M. King. Mahler Kramer and John Rose. The meeting concluded with a luncheon served in the dining-room, which was very attractive with flowers and autumn leaves.

The Book Club was entertained by Miss Lily Jones on Friday afternoon and Miss Mattie Owens was the guest of honor of the occasion.

On Monday afternoon, Mrs. W. A. Erwin entertained at a beautiful reception at her lovely home, "Kilmer," in West Durham, in honor of Miss Hattie Owens and Gordon McIver, who were married on Tuesday evening. The house was ablaze with autumn flowers, roses prevailing. The dining-room was elaborately decorated with bride roses, a shower of lovely buds being used in a great silver vase in the center of the table.

Miss Rosa Green was the guest of honor at a "shower" given on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Louise Glass. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns, autumn flowers and foliage.
